CASE NO.: 3:18-cv-00470-HDM-CBC

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

21 In order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties 22 in connection with this case, the parties hereby agree as follows:

23 1. Any party or non-party may designate as "confidential" (by stamping the relevant 24 page or other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party
25 or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or confidential
26 business or financial information, subject to protection under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 27 or Nevada law ("Confidential Information"). Where a document or response consists of more than 28 one page, the first page and each page on which confidential information appears shall be so

1 designated.

2 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or 3 in response to written discovery as “confidential” by so indicating in said response or on the record
4 at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material.
5 Additionally, a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt 6 of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that specific 7 pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated as “confidential” information. Any 8 other party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the 9 parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph 8 below. After any designation made 10 according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the designated documents or information 11 shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is resolved according to the 12 procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties shall be responsible for 13 making all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in their possession or control 14 with the specified designation.

15 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 16 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the information 17 is produced solely for the purpose of this case.

18 4. Except with the prior written consent of other parties, or upon prior order of this 19 Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be disclosed 20 to any person other than:

21 (a) counsel for the respective parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel 22 and co-counsel retained for this litigation;

23 (b) employees of such counsel;

24 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a party,
25 to the extent deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

26 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of this 27 litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to this 28 Order as Exhibit “A” (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the Confidential Information and made available for inspection by opposing counsel during the pendency or after the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon order of the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential Information and provided that if the party chooses a consultant or expert employed by NuVasive, Inc., or one of its competitors (as listed on Appendix A), the party shall notify the opposing party, or designating nonparty, before disclosing any Confidential Information to that individual and shall give the opposing party an opportunity to move for a protective order preventing or limiting such disclosure;

(e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;

(f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and

(g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall sign the Certification before being shown a confidential document. Confidential Information may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only in a deposition at which the party who designated the Confidential Information is represented or has been given notice that Confidential Information shall be designated "Confidential" pursuant to paragraph 2 above. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be allowed to retain copies.

5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set forth herein.

6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with the court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the court's electronic filing procedures in accordance with Local Rule IA 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006); Pintos v. Pac. Creditors Ass'n, 605 F.3d 665, 677-78 (9th Cir. 2010).

7. A party may designate as "Confidential" documents or discovery materials produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or discovery

1 materials. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without restriction any 2 information designated by that party or non-party as confidential, although a document may lose 3 its confidential status if it is made public.

4 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 5 party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material.
6 The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-five (25) days from the 7 receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as 8 confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the 9 document is entitled to protection.

10 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
11 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof 12 unless and until one of the following occurs:

13 (a) the party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information 14 withdraws such designation in writing; or

15 (b) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential Information
16 fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within the time period 17 specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or 18 (c) the Court rules the material is not confidential.

19 10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential
20 Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise
21 agreed or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of Confidential
22 Information, other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, and deposition 23 transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after conclusion of 24 this action to counsel for the party or non-party who provided such information, or (b) destroy 25 such documents within the time period upon consent of the party who provided the information 26 and certify in writing within thirty (30) days that the documents have been destroyed.

27 11. The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply to the 28 use of documents at trial.

12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material protected by privilege or work product protection.

Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the parties' respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.
